Hello Ladies.

PICNIC IN THE PARK

Although our need for lockdown and self isolation seem to have become a little less well defined, please remember that there are those of us in the group who still feel insecure about going out. I think that general public has changed its attitude to social distancing since the "wear a face covering" rules came in. People now seem to think that social distancing is a thing of the past! Having said that we ran a very successful socially distanced picnic at the memorial park in Basingstoke. I am pleased to say that the event went ahead last Saturday 1st August. There were 11 of us all together keeping our 2 meter social distance. We each brought a chair, a drink, own food and a hearty line in chat.

We even had a visit from a dogwalker's puppy who used her Labrador as a decoy whilst the puppy pinched my sandwich right out from my bag. (Photos are just stock images, not the actual dogs).

All who came along have asked if we could to do another picnic. Although people asked that we repeat the event in a month, I and some others believe we should try to fit another one in August, as the weather will be getting cooler and perhaps less clement by September. So lets try another one on Saturday 15th August at the same time 12:30 weather permitting. Just email, text or WhatsApp me if you'd like to come along.

Angela also organized a similar picnic event for the Tadley ladies. This too was a great success and Pam took some photos (which I forgot to do on Saturday) for us all to share. There were 9 people at the Silchester picnic.

Pam has had some success with her photos in the Basingstoke Gazette again recently in an article headed "Celebrating Humans" with a picture of Angela and also a dinosaur cheering for the NHS outside the hospital too. I for one am looking forward to her Harvest Moon photos (if she got any) in the near future

Renee and I have checked out the Dome café near Asda for future events if the weather is bad and they can accommodate up to 10 of us inside under the current rules. They cannot move any tables and chairs, but if there were more of us we could sit in smaller groups and play musical chairs if necessary!

NEWS FROM ANGELA B

Angela's husband Vince, has finally got a date for his hip op. SO Angela will be self isolating with him for two weeks before the 25th August. I'm sure she will still ring people from time to time to alleviate her boredom during this quarantine period!

OUR REGULAR ZOOM MEETINGS

Available to the whole Basingstoke Breast Cancer Self Help Group: Each Saturday at 12:30 there is a Zoom meeting. If you would like to be included please send me an email or your smart phone/ iPhone number and I can add you to the group. For newer members, or those who prefer a more "quiet" chat, there is a much smaller group on Wednesdays at 2pm. If you would rather join the smaller group to begin with please let me know and I will include you. These meetings seem to be well attended and most people who take part tell me how much they enjoy the interaction.

TELEPHONE BUDDY SCHEME

Our telephone buddy scheme seems to be working quite well too. I have had calls from people and made calls to others in the group just to keep up to date with how we are all coping with the lockdown. Please continue to call each other to brighten someone's day. Many people seem to be using ZOOM for their usual meetings and craft classes. Keep on calling, texting and sending those cute, hilarious and sometimes poignant video clips and emails as well please. They brighten my day no end and who knows just putting a smile on someone else's face could be enough to help them cope better.

WHATSAPP GROUP

The WhatsApp group is being populated with lots of interesting information and is a great way to share experiences, baking tips, eating out venues, jokes and much much more! Keep on sharing please.
